A question		Why did I ever try to catch a skunk? I will never know.
A quotation		"What on earth is that terrible stink?" my sister gaged.
An action		I had never run so fast in my life. Unfortunately, it wasn't fast enough.
Describe the setting (use senses)		In the tall grass of my backyard, behind my mom's palm tree, I heard a sound and took a whiff.
With background information		As long as life has existed skunks have always been known to be trouble.
